

Edgar is a sweet little tan Chihuahua mix who loves to cuddle and bury himself in blankets. He found his forever home with a veteran who came in looking for a large companion dog to help him. Edgar burrowed into his (and his wife's) heart and together they are taking slow walks and depending on each other to walk through life.